

SIGNIFICANT EXHIBITIONS AT THE KUNSTHAUS ZÜRICH SELECTION

Since it opened in 1910 the Kunsthaus Zürich has played host to well over 1,500 exhibitions, many of which, whether devoted to a single artist or thematic in scope, were ahead of their time.

1917	Ferdinand Hodler
1922	Edvard Munch
1932	Picasso
1941	Swiss Sculptors and Painters
1955	Etruscans
1957	Le Corbusier
1961	5000 Years of Egyptian Art
1969	Japan. National Treasures
1978	Andy Warhol
1980	Dada
1982	Matisse
1989	Der Hang zum Gesamtkunstwerk
1991	Visionary Switzerland
1992	Gustav Klimt
1998	Make Way for the Mediterranean
2000	Paul Cézanne: Finished – Unfinished
2005	Monet's Garden

See www.kunsthhaus.ch for a complete overview 1910-2010.

EXHIBITIONS WITH MOST VISITORS PER DAY (AS OF 1985)

Monet's Garden (2004)	1,931
Cézanne: Finished – Unfinished (2000)	2,244
Gustav Klimt (1992)	3,109
Salvador Dalí (1989)	2,710
Edvard Munch (1987)	2,629

HIGHLIGHTS IN 2010

Van Gogh, Cézanne, Monet – The Bührle Collection Visits the Kunsthaus Zürich (12 February to 16 May 2010)

Thomas Struth (11 June to 12 September 2010)

Picasso (15 October 2010 to 30 January 2011)